

As a Flight Attendant I do not think we should allow the use of Cell Phones on board aircraft during flight. They may interfere with the navigational systems of the aircraft. They could be used to transmit information to terrorists on the ground or in other sections of the plane. They could hinder the evacuation process and or the transmitting of emergency information from Flight Attendants to passengers or other crew members. Thank you.